Town Agent's Report

FOR THE YEAR ENDING JAN. 31, 1932

There was received by the Agent from the Selectmen tax bills for unpaid taxes amounting to $6,388.01. There has been collected by the Agent $3,455.26 and abated for different causes $270.36, making a total cancelled from the town books of $3,726.62.

There is now due the town for the year 1923,	$ 11 82
1924,	129 23
1925,	19 13
1926,	99 89
1927,	153 21
1928,	485 57
1929,	504 53
1930,	1,640 79
From Collector, 1931,	1,790 43
Total	$4,834 60

Tax deeds were taken by the town and in some instances the town took possession and padlocked the buildings. In one instance the property was rented and the rent applied upon the taxes due. This property was not assessed for collection on the Tax Collector's book, but will be charged against the redemption. The amount of taxes to be collected for the year 1931 on the tax deeded property is $753.24. This makes a total of uncollected taxes for the year 1931 of $2,543.67, an increase of $211.30 over what was reported uncollected for the year 1930. The uncollected taxes of 1929 were $176.04 less than 1930 and $424.55 more than 1928. The uncollected taxes of 1927 were $974.58 more than 1926. Of the year 1925 there was uncollected $593.89. The uncollected taxes have gradually increased until they have reached the present amount.

To the total above $4,834.60 should be added the interest due, $425.74, and the cost of notices and searches, $83.00, and taxes on tax deeded property, $753.24, making a total to be collected at the beginning of this fiscal year of $6,096.58.

J. B. WALLACE, Town Agent.
